

Fernworthy Fun Learning!

Here are some ideas to keep you busy whether at home or school.

We will continue to use Purple Mash to set home-learning.

English: Reading – every day!

Write a newspaper report.

Write rules or laws for your Viking Village.

Write each other letters.

Write a Viking Recipe

Make a Viking diary

Handwriting.

Paint/draw and stick a Viking picture.

Write a Viking Saga or Myth.

Write a poem.

Cross words/ wordsearches

SUDOKU

Maths: Viking co-ordinates – make a map

Board games

Card games

Chess (online or real!)

Times tables (ALL THE TIME!).

Outdoors:

Grow some potatoes from one that has seeded.

Make a den/Anglo-Saxon house (inside or outside).

Help with weeding and to learn which plants are weeds!

*What other fruits or vegetables can you grow from seeds that you keep?

Set up a keep fit station/or circuit (inside or outside for your family.

DT/Art:

Cook something that a Viking/Anglo-Saxon might eat.

Make a Viking Village.

Make a Viking board game.

Lego

Make a necklace.

Make a Viking longship or shield.

Make Viking/ Anglo-Saxon Bread

Make a dragon mask out of recycling.

Make a book of Viking runes.

Sew purses and bags.

Make and decorate your own rune stones.

Music: Write a Viking song.

Sing!